Please Don't.

Please don't ask for more than three pieces of any one style of the Souvenir Undergarments===Please don't forget there are other departments besides that for Cotton Underwear.

The above requests are the outcome of the Palais Royal's "Opening" Souvenirs in the Cotton Underwear Department......While we are willing to distribute several thousand of the garments, we want the distribution to be far reaching, and, by attracting great numbers to the store, to benefit other departments thereby.

Remember This-

THAT WE ARE PREPARING FOR THE SPRING AND SUMMER EVEN WHILE WINTER IS HERE.-WE AIM TO BE FIRST ALWAYS,

Dress Goods---

The clearing sale of Wool Fabrics at less than cost prices and the opening of spring and summer goods at special prices make this second floor attractive:-44c instead of 50c yard for the 1894 Wash Silks......68c instead of 75c yard for the new Figured China and Jap. Silks, light and dark grounds 39c yard for the 50c quality Figured Silks for Waists, etc......75c yard for $1 quality Moire Antique Crepes......And see the new and beautiful creations that are to be known as "Swivel Silks,"-a miserably prosaic name for the most poetic dress fabric of '94.

Ginghams from Scotland,-the new ones for the coming season..... And here is the 1894 American Gingham with a French name:--Tolle du Nord. 10c instead of 121/2c a yard should encourage early buying even if you do not appreciate the advantage of first choice.

The ever-fashionable mixtures, plaids and plain colors, are among the Wool Dress Goods reduced in prices as follows:-25c yard for 50c quality, 39e yard for 68e quality, 59e yard for $1 quality The Exclusive Novelty Dress Patterns that were $10.50 to $14 are now $7.75 for choice; those that were $15 to $22.50 are now $10.50 for choice.

Laces--

When we write that the correct and most beautiful Laces for trimming gingham and other dresses are here at 13c instead of from 50 to $1.25 a yard you may doubt,-but it does not alter the fact.

Needlework-

25c for Stamped Pieces worth considerably more than 25c each..... Choice of Duck Cloths with tinted floral designs and those called Sorrento Cloth, Bedford Cord and Twilled Cord Brainerd & Armstrong's Silk for outlining is only 4c a skein.

Souvenirs in Underwear Department-

The Palais Royal's method of quickly introducing a new season's goods is to spend a considerable sum in extra advertising..... The money is spent as follows: Certain quantities of goods are distributed at and less than cost of manufacture..... The object is not so much to sell the goods as to attract great numbers to the store, and by monstrating the superiority of the stocks to create an impression that will bear fruit later Thus we advertise the 1894 stock of Cambric and Cotton Underwear at nominal prices, and make the rule that not more than three garments be soid to

A mate of the Lulu Cromwell, a boat engaged in the lumber trade, was arrested yesterday for rejoicing too hilariously over reaching port. He had $40 in his possession and an ungentlemanly supply of the "Indian's delight." When arrested he was engaged in begging the entire neighborhood in which he was meandering to come up and rejoice with him. This morning the mate of the Lulu Cromwell said he wished he hadn't. Hereafter he will mouerate his celebrations to suit his constitution and the requirements of the law. Robinson, J. B., Pa., 1708 R. I. ave. Robertson, Samuel M., La., Metropolitan. Russell, Benj. Andrew, has announced through its leaders that a series of three lectures will be delivered by the Rev. Gilbert F. Williams, rector of Christ Church, navy yard, in the parish hall of St. John's at 7:30 p.m. on the three remaining Thursdays in January. The subjects of the lectures will be "The Life, Times and Teachings of Three Fathers of the Church." Thursday next will be devoted to St. Cyprian, the 18th to St. Althanasius and the 25th to St. Chrysostom. No admission fee will be charged, but a collection will be taken up for the purpose of paying the expenses of the monthly Sunday evening services for men held under the auspices of the brotherhood.

Funeral of Mr. Jackson. The remains of William S. Jackson were yesterday taken from his late home on O street and put in the vault at Oak Hill, from which they will be interred today. Many who were his friends in life were present at the funeral to show for the last time the respect in which they held him. The services at Oak Hill Chapel were conducted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor of the Congress Street M. P. Church, and the Rev. Dr. Elliot of the Dumbarton Ave-nue Church. The usual burial service was read by the former and an affecting prayer offered up by the latter. Those who acted as palibearers were Messrs. Warren Offutt, David L. Reynolds, Upton B. Mackall, R. A. Casilear, Isaac Birch and J. Barton Miller.

ABOUT GEORGETOWN.

The Work of Relief Among the Poor Going

More Money Needed by the Associated

Charities-Other Matters of Interest in the West End.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Georgetown branch of the Associated Charities it was reported that during the month just closed eighty orders were expended for coal and sixty for groceries. In addition to this a considerable quantity of clothes and shoes were distributed. As yet nothing whatever has come from Washington to the assistance of Georgetown's poor. The town has been compelled to bear its burdens alone. The Georgetown treasury is now very low, though there are three cold months before the society, during which they must take care of scores. The members therefore again make a public appeal for co-operation in their good work.

Without assistance from outsiders the society would necessarily stagnate. The officers, in order to carry it on, have not only given much of their time, but submitted to a continual drain on their purses. Secretary Davis' time is being monopolized
